1. In a 7 June 76 note you asked if there was anything you should have, apart from the OB data which you had previously received. The answer to that question is, "No." In short, the OB contained in the notebooks is current.

2. A trend line to watch downstream, however, is that the Libyan Army appears to be moving toward a force level increase of 9 - 10 battalions. That buildup will take several months at least, thus there is no immediate change in the OB. 25X1A
